CHINA HAS SUFFICIENT ARMS FOR AT LEAST TWO YEARS

KWANGSI STRATEGIST IS CONFIDENT

In Position To Fight Prolonged War

KWEILIN, JANUARY 14 (CENTRAL).—CHINA HAS SUFFICIENT MUNITIONS stored to last for two years and has no fear of a shortage of essential war supplies, Gen. Pai Chung-hai, Deputy Chief-of-General Staff and Director of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Kweilin Headquarters, asserted in a recent interview here with Mr. F. Tillman Durdin, correspondent of the "New York Times."

Gen. Pai expressed confidence in China's ultimate victory in the war against Japan. He foresaw China outlasting Japan militarily and economically and anticipated that the American and British tendency to support China, shown in the recent grant of credits, would eventually lead to the application of sanctions against Japan.

Noted for the rarity of his interviews with foreign newspapermen since the Sino-Japanese war began—a circumstance which Gen. Pai laughingly denied to Mr. Durdin as being due to any prejudice against the press but which, he said, was merely because of his intense preoccupation heretofore with General Staff work—the noted commander readily consented to see the "New York Times" representative.

A strong, loosely-built man with a moody face which lit up whenever he talked, Gen. Pai spoke easily and frankly of China's war problems, prospects and policies. He emphatically approved of the action of the Kuomintang Central Executive Committee in expelling Wang Ching-wei from the Kuomintang and from all official posts.

"Wang proved too weak for the travails of war-time conditions," Gen. Pai said. He left his responsibilities in Chungking on his own initiative, an action improper for a Chinese in his position in times like the present. His real intention is to attempt a compromise with the Japanese, but he can achieve nothing since he does not represent any following in the Kuomintang or among the people. Wang represents only himself.

Dealing with the war outlook, Gen. Pai said China is in a position to fight a prolonged war and from now on, a more efficient war because of the experience gained in the last year and a half. China's economic power is still ample for lengthy resistance.

"On the other hand," declared General Pai, "Japan is still counting on an early victory. Japan cannot carry on the struggle indefinitely without facing the danger of internal revolution. At Shanghai the Japanese thought to defeat the Chinese in four weeks with LOYANG, January 15 (Central).

The threat of the Japanese in south Shansi to cross the Yellow River to invade the western part of Honan was belittled by Gen. Wei Li-huang, known as "General of Hundred Victories," in an interview with a Central News reporter yesterday. General Wei was transferred from the post of vice-commander in Shansi to commander-in-chief in Honan, and arrived here the day before yesterday to take up his post.

After one year's guerilla warfare, the Japanese in Shansi have sustained heavy losses and have a precarious hold in the province. As a result of disruption of communications, the Japanese garrison units at various parts of the province have lost contact, Gen. Wei stated.

The veteran commander claimed that the Chinese are taking the initiative in the warfare in Shansi, choosing their own battle-grounds and time to fight the invaders, while the Japanese are in a passive position.

Turning to the war situation in Honan, Gen. Wei said that the Honan people have long been known as tough fighters. If they can be well mobilized and commanded, they will be a formidable force. He said that he will try his best to organize and train them.

FIFTH PLENARY SESSION ON FRIDAY

CHUNGKING, Jan. 15 (Int'l).—The stage is set for the fifth plenary session of the Kuomintang Central Executive Committee on January 20 following the arrival of committee members from all parts of the country.

The main subject of discussion, it is learned, will be ways and means of strengthening Chinese resistance through better organization and training of the fighting services including the development of a powerful air force and closer diplomatic relations with Democratic countries.

There is no likelihood of peace talks with Japan in spite of unfounded rumours of better terms from the Japanese Prime Minister, Baron Kichiro Hiranuma. These rumours, intended as wool over Chinese eyes, are not seriously taken in responsible circles.

Russia Really Wants China To Become Strong And Prosperous

DIPLOMATIC POLICY EXPLAINED BY DR. SUN FO

CHUNGKING, Jan. 14 (Central).—CHINA'S DIPLOMATIC POLICY is to join hands with Great Britain, the United States, France and Soviet Russia, declared Dr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan.

There is no contradiction in China befriending Soviet Russia and at the same time Great Britain, the United States and France. In fact, that is what Soviet Russia would like China to do, Dr. Sun observed.

"Soviet Russia has told us that she hoped China would not solely expect help from her. If, without reaching a common understanding with Britain, the United States and France, Soviet Russia volunteered to help, it would afford the Japanese militarists a chance to tell their people and the world that the Japanese campaign in China was to fight Communism. At the same time, the Japanese militarists would be sure to tell the world that since Soviet Russia was fighting side by side with China she must be trying to Bolshevize China."

If that be the case, Dr. Sun added, it would give the Japanese warlords an ideal opportunity to spread malicious propaganda. "It would also arouse unnecessary misunderstandings and misapprehensions in Great Britain, the United States and France, particularly Britain which has vital commercial interests in China."

"As a friend, Soviet Russia really wants China to become strong and prosperous and

AID DISCUSSED

Before July 7, 1937, Dr. Sun revealed, M. Dimitri Bogomoloff, the former Soviet Ambassador to China, discussed the question of Soviet aid to China and brought up three proposals: (1) that China convocate a Pacific Peace Conference, (2) that China and Soviet Russia conclude a non-aggression pact, and (3) that China and Soviet Russia enter into a mutual assistance agreement.

Moscow's proposals were studied by the Chinese authorities who were of the opinion that a Pacific pact would not be of much use since Japan was bound to oppose the idea, which view was subsequently communicated to Soviet Russia.

Concerning the second point, the Sino-Soviet Non-Aggression Pact was duly signed in August, 1937. However, negotiations have not been started yet for the conclusion of a Sino-Soviet Mutual Assistance Agreement.

DEATH OF SIR M.S. GRAHAM

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—The death occurred to-day of Sir Montrose Stuart Graham, of Long Island, one of a few American holders of a British title.

His 35-year-old son and heir is employed in a New York bank.

BRITAIN ADHERES TO PRINCIPLES OF OPEN DOOR POLICY

Strongly Worded Note Sent To Tokyo Government

TOKYO, Jan. 14 (Reuter).—Sir Robert Craigie, British Ambassador in Tokyo, has presented to the Japanese Foreign Minister, Mr. Hachiro Arita, a new note requesting a more precise and detailed interpretation of Japan's policy and aims in China as recently outlined by Prince Konoye, former Prime Minister, and Mr. Arita, on November 2 and December 19.

It is understood that Britain reiterates her adherence to the principles of the open door and equal opportunity, and declines to agree with unilateral modification of the Nine-Power Pact, though she is ready to consider constructive suggestions for its modification.

FIRM LANGUAGE

LONDON, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—The "Sunday Times" diplomatic correspondent understands that the British note has some 2,000 words and lays down in firm language—harder perhaps than any Britain has used since the China war—the British attitude to the policy deliberately pursued by Japan in closing China to all trade with the western world equally with Italy and Germany as well as Britain and America.

"CHINA WILL NOT TALK PEACE"

CHUNGKING, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—"China cannot and will not talk peace with Japan," declared Madame Chiang Kai-shek in an interview to-day.

"I have visited many fronts, but have never overheard any whisper indicating desires for peace negotiations, though Chinese soldiers and civilians at the fronts are undergoing terrible sufferings and hardships."

"Only when I came to the rear did I hear proposals for peace negotiations among certain weaklings."

ARMS FLOWING INTO CHINA

SHANGHAI, Jan. 15 (Int'l).—A steady stream of arms and ammunition are flowing into China via Burma. During the past two months, the total amount of powder and ammunition alone was figured at 60,000 tons, according to Chinese reports.

Latest shipments of heavy armaments and mechanical equipment amounting also to 60,000 tons are shortly coming to China by the same route.

With the order of new aeroplanes from the United States, China's resistance will be greatly augmented.

An army of 32,000 emergency workers has been put to work clearing the streets.

Similar wintry conditions prevail in many states east of the Rockies, resulting in at least 12 deaths.

In Montana, four persons were killed when a passenger plane apparently exploded in mid-air and crashed in a freezing snowstorm.

BIG WANCHAI FIRE

Godown Completely Gutted

Property, estimated to be valued at about $17,000, was damaged when a big fire broke out at a godown at No. 360, Hennessy Road early yesterday morning.

The premises were the joint godowns of the Lam Wo Hing charcoal firm and the Mee Wo, dealers in cork. The cause of the fire is as yet unknown.

About 2 a.m. yesterday residents in the Wanchai district were roused out of their beds by the sharp blasts of police whistles and the commotion in the street. Fire appliances summoned by police were soon at the scene.

The fire, however, was not got under control till after several hours.

It is fortunate that no person was injured.

CANAL TRAFFIC RESUMED

63 Victims, £1,500,000 Damage In Bush Fires

MELBOURNE, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—One of the blackest weeks in the history of the State of Victoria has ended with huge areas of once fertile land turned into smoking deserts by fires.

Dozens of townships have been destroyed, and firefighters faced the hopeless certainty that the fires would continue indefinitely, as there is no hope of rain.

There are now 63 victims and damage is estimated at £1,500,000.

In Melbourne, smoke is like thick fog, and thousands of firefighters and doctors are rushing food and medical supplies to country folk.

SNAP GOAL BY FORWARD GIVES EASTERN WIN

Kowloon Beaten By Only Point In Close Game

By Robin

A fine goal scored by Lee Tak-kee during the first half of play cost Kowloon the game against Eastern in their senior division encounter at Happy Valley on Saturday. The Chinese side winning by the solitary goal scored.

Closely contested football was seen and the keenness developed by both sides brought forth many exciting moments, especially when Kowloon, endeavouring to equalise, gave the Chinese custodian a handful to do.

Kowloon fielded the same side as last week when they defeated Middlesex. B.I. at left half showed a marked improvement, though rather slow at getting to the ball. Honnball in the forward line did not show much dash as a leader, but the two inside forwards made up for the deficits.

Eastern, with Lee Tak-kee in the attack, took opportunities that confronted them with a marked accuracy, not wasting their shots by merely banging at the goal, the forwards taking careful aim before placing the ball goal wards. Hartley in the Kowloon goal, was in his usual form, doing splendid work between the sticks.

KOWLOON ATTACK
Taking the ball into the Chinese half of the field soon after the whistle went, Kowloon attacked through Pat Jorge and Honnball, the former's shot was inches shy of the goal. Pressing again the mainlanders almost drove the ball home. After a spell of attacks, Kowloon fell back to the defensive game, when the Chinese forwards showed some retaliation. Hau Ching-to, working the ball on the side line, beat Maxwell, cut in and centred. Lee Tak-kee taking the ball on the run placed it into the net for the opening goal. At half time the Chinese were up one goal to nil.

After the interval, Kowloon had the better of exchanges but could not find the goal. The final score remained one to nil in favour of Eastern.

NAVY RUN RIOT OVER CLUB

Navy ran riot over Club by five clear goals. In their senior division league encounter at Causeway Bay on Saturday. The Civilian's fielding a depleted side, many second-stringers filling vacated positions, put up a poor show against the League leaders.

Navy now stands on top of the senior league with 23 points. South China "A" runners-up with 20 points and two games in hand. The third position is occupied at present by Eastern, who have only 15 points.

With things going more or less as they wished Navy had an easy time with Club, the defence were scarcely called on. MacAllister proved a mere spectator for the greater part of the game, while both the backs stayed well up.

Armstrong had a Roman holiday in front of the Club goal, giving Ernie Strange a handful. Spiller at inside right gave a fine display of clever football. Honeywell, the veteran Navy half-back was a stone-wall to the opposition.

Hendy opened scoring for Navy soon after commencement of play and Honeywell's top deceived Cioes for Navy's second goal. At half time Navy was two clear goals in the lead.

Armstrong further increased the score after the interval, with Honeywell and Spiller each scoring once before the whistle went for full time. Navy winning over Club by a score of five goals to nil.

POLICE LOSE TO MIDDLESEX

Watson's hat-trick for Middlesex defeated the Police by the odd goal in five, in their first division league encounter on Saturday. Play was not what one expected of Middlesex, who usually give a pleasing display.

Watson, moving up to the forward line, did all the scoring for the Army side, while Moss replied for the Police twice.

SOFTBALL

Leading Team Beaten

By R.O.Y.

Sensational ball was witnessed at Klink's Park yesterday when both the leading men's teams, Chinese Baseball Club and Midgets, were beaten by the Trojans and Filipinos respectively, forcing them into a triple tie with Recreio for League leadership.

The Filipinos and Midgets went to an extra innings before a decision was made, the former scoring the winning run in the last half of the ninth on a punt by Pete Gosulco when Herbie Quon threw wild over first base.

After a run of good victories, C.B.A. was well trounced by the veteran Baseballers. Doc Moulthen was pitching excellent ball, showing a turn of speed not shown by him this season.

In the ladies section, the Wahos climbed to joint leadership with the Cardinals by their victory over the Filipino Girls.

Results are:
Men's League—H.K. Baseball Club beat C.B.A. 19-9; Recreio beat English Forum 10-1; Trojans beat Chinese Baseball Club 4-3; Filipinos beat Midgets, 9-8.
Ladies League—Wahos beat Filipino Girls, 18-11; Canadian Chinese beat Cubs, 21-9.

Ladies' Doubles Decided

The final of the Colony Ladies' Doubles Lawn Tennis Championship was played at the United Services Recreation Club yesterday when Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Chiu Chun-chiu defeated Mrs. Skinner and Mrs. Tracey in straight sets 6-3, 6-1.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Chiu combined well, early outplaying a plucky first set challenge by their opponents in a game that was over in a half hour.

Mrs. Grasset, wife of H.E. Major-General A. E. Grasset, D.S.O., M.C., later presented the prizes to winners and runner-ups in both the Ladies' Singles and Doubles Championships, being in turn presented with a bouquet by little Miss Shirley Edwards, daughter of Captain and Mrs. C. L. Edwards.

UNUSUAL RUGBY RESULT

SCOTLAND 48; WALES 6 IN INTERNATIONAL (BY "ROBIN")

High scoring featured the International Rugby tournament games played on the Army ground at Seakwipo, on Saturday. Scotland defeated Wales by a score of 48 points to 6, which is something unheard-of in local rugby.

With a strong side which included Stewart and Grieve in the three quarter line, besides Boe and Thomas of the Navy, the Scots proved far too strong to their weak opponents.

The game lost its interesting aspect soon after commencement and was very much one-sided.

Stewart scored three tries in the opening half of play, with Henderson and Boe each once. Watson converting twice. Finley scored for Wales bringing the score at half time to 21 points to 3.

After the interval Scotland went ahead and scored seven tries with only one reply. Boe (2), Thomas (2), Grieve, Hutchison and Stewart once, Watson scored two conversions. Kay kicked a penalty for Wales. The final score read 48 points to 6 for Scotland.

IRELAND OUT

A strong English side eliminated Ireland from the International Rugby tournament to enter the finals with Scotland by a score of 27 points to 6, played at Seakwipo on Saturday before a fairly large gathering of Rugby fans.

England, dominating most of the play, downed Ireland 19 points to nil in the first half.

Chadwick (2), Bidwell, Walters, and Askwith scored one try each.

Bidwell converted one kick.

After resumption Ogle and Evans with Peers majorising one kick. Potter and Carew Hunt replied for Ireland. The final score was 27 points to 6.

JUNIOR CRICKET LEAGUE OPENS: FOUR DRAWS

High Scoring In I.R.C.-Club; Army-Craigengower Games

By "TAC"

The Junior cricket league commenced on Saturday with four draws out of five games, the only definite result being in the match between Club de Recreio and the Police, which the former won by 88 runs.

Taken as a whole there was little outstanding in the games. The best batting performance was credited to the Army, who ran up a total of 300 for six wickets declared. Of this, however, extras contributed no less than 53. Cpl. Webb and 2/Lt. Fergus made 67 and 52 respectively.

The Indians also ran up a big score, against the Club. A. Baker contributed 71 not out and A. K. Miao 42 to their innings of 187 for 4 declared.

LAST GANGSTER

Gangland and penitentiary life, roaring newspaper offices in big cities, and romance in the country are mingled in a dramatic plot in "The Last Gangster," in which Edward G. Robinson appears. It is showing at the King's Theatre to-day in the story of a man's term in prison and the effect on his family.

James Stewart, Rose Stradner, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's glamorous discovery from Vienna, Lionel Stander and others of note surround America's "number one" gangster star in the new drama.

"The Last Gangster" deals with the downfall of a gang overlord trailed by the G-Men, jailed on an income tax fraud indictment and imprisoned for ten years during which time his wife changes her identity to save their child from the disgrace of his name.

NEW CINEMA HOUSE

Cathay Theatre To Open Soon

The Cathay Theatre, the Colony's newest cinema, is nearing completion in Wan-chai Road, on a site almost immediately opposite the old No. 2 Police Station.

With a seating capacity of 920, an entrance lobby in marble and Venetian mosaic, with concealed lighting in the auditorium of three different shades of green, the cinema is the last word in architectural design.

R.C.A. "high fidelity" sound system, and treatment of the walls with rice-husk plastic and the ceiling with Heraklith boards, should ensure perfect sound.

Films already booked for showing include "Vivacious Lady," "Snow White," "Carefree," "Little Miss Broadway," "Lancer Spy" and "Four Men and a Prayer."

Lock Hing and Company, silver-smith and curio dealers, are the owners of this new theatre property. Messrs. Palmer and Turner are the architects.

Chinese Ladies Visit Shumchun

A group of the ladies of the Hongkong Chinese Women's Club paid a visit to the Shumchun Centre.

Mrs. Nancy Gockehin, Li Shu-fan, Rose Chow, Pauline Yee, May Ho, Tang Chue, K. K. Lee, Chung Chan and Misses Mei Ung and Sarah Yao took with them 180 woollen singlets for the patients of the Shumchun Hospital, and six bales of old clothes for the refugees cared for at Shumchun by the Tung Wah Hospital and the Red Swastika Society.

The party crossed the border from the Leased Territories in four cars. They passed through Shumchun village which still showed signs of the bombing it has suffered. The work of the St. John Ambulance at Shumchun was admired and the visitors were shown round the Hospital by the house doctor, Dr. Leung Tin-sun.

The refugee hostel of the Red Swastika Society was next inspected under the guidance of Miss Wu, the supervisor of the Hostel. Miss Wu, who is the niece of Gen. Wu Te-chen, has won the affection of her charges. She speaks Hakka dialect as well as Mandarin, Shanghai and Cantonese.

Electric power is now being restored at Shumchun and it is hoped the entire system will be in operation this week.

CHINESE TEACHER MARRIED

The wedding between Miss Wong Chai-hong and Mr. Soo Gun-chen was solemnised with Chinese ceremony on Saturday afternoon in the Roof Dining Room of the Gloucester Hotel.

The well-known bride, formerly a teacher at the Tong Fong Girls' School, was costumed in a white satin gown, simply designed with long full sleeves, a high V-neck and straight floor-length skirt. A string of pearls about her neck was the only adornment. The three-year-old bride veil was caught to the head by a halo of seed pearls and orange blossoms, the bouquet of white carnations completed the bridal picture.

Mr. Soo, the groom, is the son of Mr. Soo Ching-wai, well-known merchant in the Colony.

Attending at the ceremony and later at a tea party were over 200 guests of this popular Hongkong couple. After a short vacation Mr. and Mrs. Soo will make their residence in the Colony, Mr. Soo being connected with Jensen and Co.

FIRST WOMAN CHAIRMAN

L.C.C. Nomination

Mrs. Evelyn M. Lowe, one of the best-known educationists in the London Labour party, has been nominated as chairman of the L.C.C. during this year—the council's jubilee year. This is the first time a woman has been selected as chairman of the council.

Mrs. Lowe has been a member of the L.C.C. since 1922 and represents West Bermondsey. She is the widow of Dr. George C. Lowe, who was formerly in partnership with Dr. Alfred Salter, M.P. He died in 1919.

For three years, from the time the Labour party took office in 1934, Mrs. Lowe was chairman of the Education Committee, and since then has been chairman of the Establishment Committee.

In 1929-30 she was deputy chairman of the council. She has served on the London Advisory Committee for Juvenile Employment, the Child Guidance Council, and the Burnham Committee on Teachers' Salaries.

She is at present chairman of the Departmental Committee which was set up by the Board of Education to consider instruction in domestic subjects in public elementary schools.

RURAL WELFARE WORKERS

Second Group Leave For Shumchun

The second group of workers for the Shumchun Rural Welfare Centre left for the station on Saturday morning. They are all volunteers who will be provided with board and lodging, only by the administration.

Their names are as follows: Wen Han-hian (Graduate Sheung Kan Univ.), Ye Swel-hong (Graduate Yenching Univ.), Chu Kachai, Wong Kwok-kee, Fung Yung-shang, Chu Ling-gee, (Graduates of Chungshan Univ.), Chen Hing-choi (Graduate Sheung Kan Univ.), Au Kwong-jok (Graduate of Canton Athletic School), Chan Moo-tak, Chan Mou-yin, Tang Chuk-kwan, (Graduates of Chungshan Univ.).

It is estimated that through out the area between the East River and the boundary of the Leased Territories there are about 750,000 to a million persons affected by the Japanese air and land raids.

These people have had losses as to buildings, animal stock or reserves of seed and food. The possibilities of further raids and general uncertainty are contributing towards keeping the refugees from their peaceful pursuits.

And it is to give advice and assistance to the peasants in resuming their occupations that this group of young Chinese are going into the field.

ANIMALS' REST HOME LIBEL

£300 Award Against Woman

Judgment with costs was given in the King's Bench Division recently for Mr. Alfred Brisco, of Blackwell, Cumberland, in his libel and slander action against Mrs. Mary Kate Matthews, of Beaconsfield-road, New Southgate. N. Her counter claim for alleged libel against Mr. Brisco failed.

The jury awarded Mr. Brisco £100 for the libel and £200 for the slander.

Mr. Brisco is organising secretary of the National Equine Defence League and in charge of the "Blackwell Animals' Home of Rest. Mrs. Matthews is hon. secretary and a director of the league.

It was alleged that Mrs. Matthews, in a circular letter, stated that Mr. Brisco had used a defective and unclean electrocutor for dogs, which meant that he was callous in his treatment of animals. Mr. Brisco also claimed that Mrs. Matthews slandered him at a league meeting.

ELECTROCUTOR EFFICIENT

Evidence was given by Mr. James McCrory, a veterinary surgeon, that at no time had he seen any sign of animals being ill-treated at the Blackwell home. The electrocutor was very efficient.

Mrs. Matthews, in the box, declared that when she visited the Blackwell home an electrocutor leash was in such a condition

Round About

There are large and small dogs. Animals of excellent breed and mere curs, yet human beings cherish and care for many of the various categories.

Pups these days in many homes are bathed, fed, exercised and cured for just as young children. In their turn they give comfort, happiness, protection and fidelity to their masters and mistresses. Such was the position of "Molly" in her household.

"Muzzles, leads, cats and beer she thoroughly detested, and, at times, had little patience with her walking companion, the amah, whose bear heels she had been known to bite.

Amah did not go in for a lavish display of affection towards "Molly," either. And finally the point of mutual endurance arrived.

Late evening, "Molly" and amah went walking, an evil smelling boy stops them and enters into conversation with the amah. Talk and more talk, up and down went the tones of the two voices. A jangle of money, then all was blackness for "Molly" as she was clutched in the boy's arm.

Sinking her strong little teeth into the boy's unfamiliar flesh, the pup bounces to the ground and streaks up the roadway. Passing the running amah, "Molly" tastes blood of her ankles from her flying bites.

Onward dashes "Molly" to home and kind friends announcing her arrival by yips, yelps, and much wagging of a tail and hand licks.

Needless to say amah and "Molly" severed their acquaintance.

that she was told it would torture an animal to be "painlessly destroyed."

"I wrote to the committee about all this. What else could I do?" she asked.

Mr. Charles Martin Holmes, lecturer on horse shoeing to the L.C.C. and adviser to the league, was asked by Mrs. Matthews, who conducted her own defence: "They have said I was of unreasonable temper and insulted people. Did you ever see any evidence of that?"

"Certainly not," he replied. "I found you very reasonable, and anything I suggested was done at once."

SHORTAGE OF LYMPH FOR SMALL-POX WORK

Dr. C.C. Wang Gives Special "D. P." Interview

"WE ARE VERY SHORT OF LYMPH for anti-small-pox vaccination and if I can raise about 1,000,000 doses for work in the interior, it would prove a great help to China," said Dr. C. C. Wang, Special Liaison Officer, League of Nations Epidemic Prevention Commission, when interviewed by a "Hongkong Daily Press" representative upon arrival in Hongkong from Haiphong on Saturday.

Dr. Wang, many readers may recall, was a member of the local medical profession some years ago, having relinquished his practice here in 1932 to go to north.

Dr. Wang was reluctant to speak on any subject other than that connected with his profession but he expressed the opinion that the war would be a very prolonged affair though China was handicapped in that war supplies were very slow in coming into the country.

The troops were in the highest state of efficiency and Dr. Wang added, there was nothing wrong with the morale, which was never higher than now. Supplies were badly wanted, he said.

In private practice in Hankow when the war broke out, Dr. Wang was invited by the League of Nations Epidemic Prevention Commission to fill the post as Special Liaison Officer in view of the fact that he had had vast experience in organization work and that he spoke a number of dialects.

ISOLATION HOSPITALS

Dr. Wang went to Changsha to organize isolation hospitals for patients and this work carried him to Hupoh, Hankow, Shasi and Ichang. This completed, he turned his attention to refugee work and, in this connexion, he mentioned that the League gave a lot of money towards this very deserving cause.

Asked if there were sufficient doctors in the country to cope with the work, Dr. Wang said there was no shortage in this direction though the lack of supplies was hindering their work to a great extent.

Dr. Wang was in Hankow when it was bombed and was only given half-an-hour to evacuate before Changsha was burned. It was at the latter place that he lost everything—equipment and supplies.

COLD XMAS EVE

Dr. Wang was looking very fit and well despite the fact that the last six months had been very strenuous ones for him. He remarked that he spent Christmas Eve some 3,000 feet above sea level and was huddled up, shivering in the cold "when you people here in Hongkong were having a grand time, I suppose."

The liaison officer will remain in Hongkong pending further orders and, if the many associations and societies doing war relief work would lend him their co-operation in his efforts to secure a plentiful supply of lymph, they would be doing a really good turn.

The small-pox season is just setting in and with China in the throes of war, an epidemic of major proportions would prove a great handicap to the fighting forces.

VARIATION IN RAINFALL

A remarkably wide range of variation in rainfall precipitation in different parts of the Colony during 1938 is shown in Royal Observatory statistics just published.

Driest spot in the Colony was Lokmachau, on the border, where only 47.78 inches fell throughout the year, although at Fanling, only a few miles away, the record showed a fall of 64.17 inches.

Heaviest falls, registered at over 1,000 feet above sea-level, were at Shingmun, where one gauge registered 70.65 inches and a second gauge 68.87.

The Tytam area averaged between 62 and 66 inches. Observatory total was 55.36, lowest since 1901.

His Excellency the Governor has appointed the following to be members of a Committee to be known as the Nutrition Research Committee to inquire into the question of Nutrition in the Colony including the application of dietetics to the social problems of the Colony:—

Honourable Director of Medical Services, (Chairman), His Honour Sir Alasdair Duncan Atholl MacGregor, Professor Lindsay Tasman Ride, Dr. Kenneth Harrison Uttley, Mr. Francis Henry Loseby, Dr. Li Tsao-yu, Professor William Innes Gerrard, Dr. Foon-ye Catherine Woo, Dr. Paul Biddulph Wilkinson, Dr. Agnes Lillas Jenkins Dovey.

PASTEURISATION ORDER POSTPONED

Postponement of the order requiring pasteurisation of all the Colony's milk supplies is announced in the "Government Gazette."

The notification, authorised by the Governor-in-Council states that "being satisfied that, owing to special conditions, it is undesirable to enforce, before the 1st of April, 1939, the amendments in the by-laws, the Governor in Council hereby orders that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary therein contained, the said amendments shall not be enforced until the 1st day of April, 1939."

SPECIAL PERIOD OF GRACE

Compulsory pasteurisation of the Colony's milk supplies, which was to have been enforced from January 1, was the subject of a surprise announcement on Saturday, namely the postponement of operation of the by-laws until April 1.

Official explanation is that certain dairy-owners who have been endeavouring to secure the necessary plant from Europe or the United States have been unable to secure it in time.

A further period of grace is, therefore, being given on the principle that "it is better that the by-laws should be observed in a spirit of friendly co-operation than that there should be immediate rigid application."

Lt. Comdr. H. H. Caddy, of H. M. S. Kent, was summoned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court on Saturday on two counts of driving a car without a licence and dangerous driving on January 10.

It was alleged that while driving in Customs Pass about 7.30 p.m. on the day in question, he dimmed the lights on the approach of an on-coming vehicle. When it had passed and before he could switch on the head lamps again, he saw a figure in front. He swerved and hit the man.

SINO STUDENTS' EDUCATION

Mr. Chu Shao-ling, who as China's adviser attended the International Labour Conference, has returned to Hongkong. After the conference Mr. Chu went on an inspection tour of Europe for several months. He was very much impressed by the great sympathy shown by the various nations to China regarding the present hostilities.

While the Chinese students pursuing their knowledge abroad appear to be free from the traditional bad habits of certain returned students. Remarkable on the education of the overseas Chinese, he expressed pity at the meagreness of opportunity for them to study the Chinese language. He said that he is now planning, together with his many friends residing abroad, to establish more Chinese schools abroad.

Under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, K.C.M.G., the Arts Association of the Hongkong University will present G. B. Shaw's "You Can Never Tell" on Saturday, January 21, in the University Great Hall, at 8.45 p.m. A special performance for schools will be given on Friday, January 20, at 7 p.m. The proceeds from both performances will be given to the Chinese Medical Relief Fund.

HONGKONG, JANUARY 16, 1939.

OPIUM TRAFFIC IN 1938

IN ITS CAMPAIGN against the abuse of opium and narcotic drugs, the League of Nations has obtained "positive results" in the application of the Conventions and in the preparation of a conference to consider the possibility of limiting and controlling the production of raw materials.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION was paid during the year 1938 to the situation in the Far East—especially in the regions of China under the control of the Japanese armed forces. In the course of the sessions of the Advisory Committee on the Traffic of Opium and of the League Assembly, it was emphasized that the Japanese had taken advantage of their advance into Chinese territory to spread drug addiction among the Chinese population.

THE ASSEMBLY associated itself with the appeal made to the governments concerned by the Advisory Committee that they should, at the earliest moment and with the utmost energy take steps to put an end to a state of affairs, the prolongation of which, while seriously affecting China and the Chinese people, had repercussions also on other parts of the world.

THE WORLD SITUATION as regards the production and consumption of raw opium demonstrates the clear necessity for international supervision of production.

THE PREPARATION of a conference to consider the possibility of limiting and controlling the production of raw materials was successfully continued.

CONTROL OF RAW MATERIALS entrusted with this task laid down clearly the essential principles on which the future convention must be based and the methods suitable for determining the recognized world requirements of raw opium. The committee also prepared a plan for adapting the production of opium to these needs and this plan was communicated to the various governments.

THE LEADING COUNTRIES in which the opium poppy is cultivated have already taken steps to reduce production and have set up State monopolies in order to effect a stricter supervision over the production and utilization of the poppy harvest. Some of these countries, however, drew attention to the necessity for taking into account the interests of cultivators of the poppy in regions where cultivation has been carried on for centuries and forms part of the means of livelihood of the people concerned.

WHILE FULLY AWARE of the difficulties to be surmounted before a convention could be concluded, the League Assembly was convinced that a solution could be found, and adopted the conclusions of the Opium Advisory Committee.

THE SUPERVISORY Body set up under the Limitations Convention of 1931, whose task it is to draw up the statement of annual estimates of world requirements of dangerous drugs, examined the estimates supplied by governments for 1938 and published a statement in November. The Permanent Central Opium Board communicated to the Council its statistics for 1937 relating to dangerous drugs and the report of its activities for 1938. These statistics covered manufacture, trade consumption and world stocks.

IN SPITE of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, considerable interest is being taken by the Chinese Government in the question of opium and other narcotic drugs, and determined steps continue to be taken by the Central authorities in their attempts to stamp out the evil once and for all. Especial interest is being evinced in the situation in territory seized by the Japanese militarists and the attempts of the Japanese and their allies to spread drug addiction and to poison the Chinese people in the hope that their powers of resistance will be so weakened that their cravings for the drug, as well as for heroin, will be far greater than their desire to pursue the war against an inhuman enemy.

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

Do you all really realize the excitement prevailing in the travel business at this time? Pan-American Airways' office report the first test flight of their new 72-passenger Boeing Clipper for February 1.

Richard Halliburton just about all set to hoist his orange and white sails for Foochow, Midway Island, Honolulu and San Francisco. And along comes the news that the liner Empress of Britain will be calling in by the first week of March on her journey round the world.

However, such exciting news does not disjunct us from the present and past passengers and visitors along the water and airways.
President Cleveland

FRIDAY MORNING 7.30 o'clock this American President Liner was tied up at her berth, just arrived from Manila.

Two extremely interesting people, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fisher stopped over for a day's call and proceeded on to San Francisco in this steamer. This gentleman will arrive in time for the opening of the San Francisco Fair in the middle of February. For this event he is transporting via the Cleveland 900 tons of material which will be placed in an exhibit pertaining to forestry in the Philippines.

We did not see any of the cargo belonging to Mr. Fisher, but from reports it will be complete in detail of the subject and very well displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fordham are really on a winter vacation. Manila, their last port of call, was very enjoyable and they are expected to have an equally pleasant visit in our Colony.

Another very interesting caller from Manila who will arrive via the President Pierce is Mr. Arsenio Luz headed for San Francisco and the Exposition. Journeying to the same destination with this gentleman are the members of the Philippine Constabulary Band. Not only will they appear at the Golden Gate Fair, they will also tour the United States before returning to the southern city.

Six-thirty a.m. Saturday morning was a bit too much for us, therefore, we were not dock-side waving adios as the President Cleveland headed for Japan and America. To Kobi on business journeys the charming Mr. D. Drummond, Oriental Manager of the Canadian Steamship Co. However, he will be coming home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Key are destined for San Francisco, we must they are on board and enjoying the cold north winds, we were unfortunately not in locating them the evening before sailing.

Mr. C. W. Warner was another member who made a late evening the night before sailing to San Francisco.

An interesting report for his many friends and acquaintances is the arrival of Mr. O. G. Steen in the next American President Liner, the President Taft. Disembarking at Japan where he visits for two weeks, he continues to Shanghai for a call of the same period and arrives in Hongkong thereafter. Mr. Steen's many years residence in the Far East gives him a great number of friends who were indeed glad to hear of his future position as Oriental Manager for the newly formed Company.
Empress of Asia

FEW VISITORS did this Canadian Pacific steamer bring to our fair city when she called on the morning of Friday the 13th, from Vancouver and Shanghai.

Happy welcomes were extended to Lady Maze of Shanghai. Holidaying and renewing old friendships is the event of the journey. Her niece husband, Inspector General of Customs in the Northern city was not accompanying Lady Maze.

However, there were a few through passengers on various missions. Mr. Ralph L. Cairney and his University of Washington basketball team were heading for Manila. It will be a treat for the Southern city to see these fast basket throwers.

Mr. C. W. Reese and Mr. S. Smith, Americans with the Standard Oil Co. stopped off for a first look-see before travelling on to Sumatra and the business of their company.

Homeward bound and calling by for a short hello was Mr. J. Turner, returning from a business trip in the interests of his company, Johnston Allen and Company, linen manufacturers in Swatow.

Thursday morning upon the arrival of the Empress of Asia from Manila, she will be placed in drydock for 21 days overhaul. Her big sister ship, Empress of Japan will be at the wharf ready to depart for Vancouver next Saturday.

£110 FOR RARE PAPAL BULL

Excommunication Of Elizabeth

On February 25, 1569, Pope Pius V. formally excommunicated Queen Elizabeth for having seized the Throne and usurped the position of supreme head of the Church of England.

The printed Papal Bull executing the sentence is known by two copies, which are carefully preserved up at Sotheby's recently and was bought by Mr. Beckett, an American collector, for £110.

If that rare tract, "One Think Is Needful," by John Bunyan, printed about 1675, had been in a better condition it would have fetched much more than the Papal Bull. Mr. Sawyer was able to win it at £72. Mr. Ernest Maggs paid £92 for the "Yet Once Again," by William Tyndale, issued at Antwerp in 1535.

FRENCH PAPERS

A remarkable collection of French papers once owned by Charles Chabot, Governor of Bordeaux in the reign of Francis I., realised £165, falling to the cable bid of Dr. Gabriel Wells, of New York. In one of these the death of Queen Elizabeth was ascribed to a sorrow which she felt a few days before she complained of it.

The Rev. S. Baring-Gould, who died at an old age some years ago, should be remembered for being the author of the famous hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers." It was his wont to write copies of it and sell them at half-a-crown in aid of his charities.

One of these now brought £13 10s and was bought by his grandson, Mr. F. Baring-Gould.

EXPEDITION IN HIMALAYAS

In The Steps Of Alexander

Four young Englishmen recently returned to London from an adventurous expedition in the Himalayas, where, in the Swat Valley, the "Garden Valley of a Thousand Monasteries," they have made discoveries that, according to one authority, "will without doubt throw great light on many historical problems."

Swat becomes a familiar name to many Englishmen in their nursery days; but it is not to be imagined that this expedition will answer at last the question that they used to ask them:

Who, or why, or which, or what, is the Akond of SWAT?

It is concerned with a greater character, although one, in some ways, no less mysterious, for its excavations were carried out on the route taken by Alexander the Great on his famous march to the banks of the Indus.

Any discovery bearing on that stupendous feat is bound to be interesting, and historically important; and the unearthing of statues of Buddha revealing obvious signs of Greek influence, from where they had lain buried for nearly 2,000 years, is alone a sufficient reward for the efforts of the expedition.

But the great question that historians have asked themselves about the invasion: "Was it," in the words of Mr. H. G. Wells, "a systematic survey of a world, meant to consolidate into one great order, or was it a wild-goose chase?"—that is likely to remain still unanswered.

When it comes to "Why?" Alexander is as inscrutable as the Akond.

CORRESPONDENCE

JAPAN-QUALIFIED DOCTORS

[To the Editor, "The Hongkong Daily Press"]

Sir, I have read with great interest your leader of Jan. 12 and the correspondence relating to the invasion of Japan-qualified medical practitioners.

While it is admitted that the problem may soon become very urgent unless tackled vigorously at its source, one must not rush to the conclusion that graduates of Japanese and Italian medical colleges are necessarily inferior to those coming down from universities or schools in Great Britain.

A few of the well-known universities in Japan—for instance, the Tokyo Imperial and Keio Universities—have produced excellent doctors and research scientists who would be a credit to the cultural point of view, to any learned profession.

However, it is regrettable that, through perhaps an oversight, the abolition of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty should have left this particular clause intact. This regret is not so much occasioned by the fact that graduates of inferior medical schools in Japan, provided they are permitted to practise in this Colony, as by the feeling that doctors who have completed their training in the great medical institutions of America and France are debased on account of absence of a reciprocal agreement between Great Britain and the countries in question.

It is fitting that the whole question of admitting Italian and Japanese medical graduates into practice in the British Empire should be brought to the fore at the time when Lt.-Col. Sir Richard Needham is making his tour of investigation. There can be no doubt that the peculiar conditions in this Colony will require special attention when it comes to the question whether or not to do away with this reciprocity between Great Britain on the one hand, and Italy and Japan on the other.

It is understood, of course, that the Colony problem forms only part of the general problem. Questions of Imperial policy are inextricably mingled with purely economic and technical difficulties.

Who can say that the urgent cries of our local practitioners who see their preserves threatened by the flood of non-English speaking, energetic, probably ethnically unproven, invader from Japan may not be hopelessly drowned in the general wave of "appeasement" that is only another name for surrender to the big stick?

While feeling every sympathy for our hard-working and deserving local graduates, one cannot but fear that theirs will only be a voice crying in the wilderness.

If Great Britain does take the initiative in revising or repudiating the present system, it will only be when "appeasement" has at last given way to courage and futile visits to dictators dropped for the almost obsolete method of standing up to one's enemy.

The policy of friendship for China, traditional of the United States, has been steadfast. Successive governments irrespective of Party, Democratic or Republican, have indicated that the aggression of Japan in China was against the spirit of American Democracy, as well as in violation of the Nine Power Treaty, and the Kellogg Pact. The pious trust of Sir John Simon in Japanese promises prevented the success of earlier attempts by

China And Russia—Against World Fascism

Dr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan, is the only son of the founder of the Republic, Dr. Sun Yat-sen. And as one of the leaders of the Government and the Party has been consistently an advocate of resistance against Japanese aggression. In addition to this he has been an advocate of a mode of resistance which has been recognized as containing the fundamental principles and policies of his revered father.

In an authoritative statement to the Press, Dr. Sun Fo has made reference to China's diplomatic policy. "China's diplomatic policy is to join hands with Great Britain, the United States, France and Soviet Russia." And being involved in a life and death struggle with Japan, China's diplomacy is aimed first and foremost at the defeat of the invader.

China, therefore, will henceforth, according to Dr. Sun Fo, be directed towards consolidating the traditional ties of friendship with these four great powers and the cementing of further bonds of relationship political, economic and cultural.

The community of interests that lie between Great Britain, France, the United States and China is based upon the Nine Power Treaty signed in Washington. The terms of this Treaty are well-known and as between the major Powers of the Far East (with the exception of Soviet Russia) set out principles upon which relations shall be maintained between them. Japan was a party to the Treaty but she has seen fit to have violated its terms by her aggressive action of invasion since 1931 against China.

And vis-a-vis the other interested Powers she has shewn by her conduct that she will no longer recognize the principles of the Treaty, including that of the Open Door and equal opportunity for Trade.

The recent trends in international politics and diplomatic exchanges between Great Britain and Japan and the United States Japan confirm the fact that unilateral changes in the Nine Power Treaty will not be acceptable to either of those Powers. On the stand taken now, China's hopes for co-operation in maintaining the Treaty cannot be considered to be unfounded.

It is true that unwise statesmanship in Great Britain and a failure to recognize realities by Sir John Simon from 1931 up to recently allowed Japan to exploit an advantage which she derived from equally unwise policies by figures such as Wang Ching-wei in China.

But to-day pious hopes have given place to hard realization that Japan's ambitions are unbounded. This was unmistakably shown by the Japanese invasion of South China which contradicted all statements made to Sir John Simon when he was Secretary of State to the British Government.

The policy of friendship for China, traditional of the United States, has been steadfast. Successive governments irrespective of Party, Democratic or Republican, have indicated that the aggression of Japan in China was against the spirit of American Democracy, as well as in violation of the Nine Power Treaty, and the Kellogg Pact. The pious trust of Sir John Simon in Japanese promises prevented the success of earlier attempts by the United States to aid China. And later the development of "isolationism" obstructed any chance of the initiative being taken by the United States Government in checking Japanese aggression in the Far East.

The deterioration of the European situation after Munich brought a clearer understanding of the meaning of the fight against World Fascism—Germany, Italy and Japan—even to Sir John Simon.

And the need for American support for the possible approaching trial of strength between the Democracies and Fascism has chastened the pro-Japanese elements in England.

It is remarkable that notwithstanding unfortunate statements by authoritative Chinese in the United States aid for China is forthcoming both commercial and financial.

The arguments for the success of Chinese diplomacy in the United States are not unfavourable. Although we know that the chief premise for that success lies in the steadfastness of the Chinese armies and our people in the face of the assault of the enemy.

Soviet Russia was no party to the Nine Power Treaty. But in the special circumstances governing the relations between China and Soviet Russia since the restoration of relations in 1933, the sanctity of Chinese territorial, political and administrative integrity is guaranteed by the signature of a Non-Aggression Pact between the two Powers in August 1937, a month after the commencement of hostilities between Japan and China.

It is but logical that the signature of a Non-Aggression Pact bespeaks something more than mere paper and ink. When, as in this case, China has renounced aggression against Soviet Russian territory all along the thousands of miles of common frontier it is to be expected that the partner in the Non-Aggression Pact, in this case, Soviet Russia, will do everything within the bounds of commercial, financial and diplomatic possibilities to prevent the entire or part of that territory from falling into the hands of an aggressive country, in this case Japan which is, in addition, rightly regarded as a common enemy of both countries.

Aid from Soviet Russia then must flow from the Non-Aggression Pact which binds the two countries in close bonds of friendship. And this aid in no way stands in the way of or contradicts that aid which must flow from the bonds of the Nine Power Treaty which bind China to Great Britain, France and the United States.

In point of fact this is actually what is happening and despite the illusions of the Japanese, the Germans, and the Italians, Soviet Russian aid to China will remain within the bounds of the Covenant of the League of Nations, members of which are both China and Soviet Russia.

Official Disclosure Of German Naval Strength

The first official disclosure of the strength of the German Navy at the end of this year is made in the Year Book of the German War Navy, just published in Berlin by order of the supreme naval command.

It is revealed that 61 submarines are ready for service or so far advanced in construction that they could be made available at short notice. All these boats have been built since the beginning of 1935.

Of the new submarines, 36 are 250-ton boats, suitable for North Sea or Baltic operations. The remaining 25 are of 500 to 740 tons and were built for ocean cruising. It is revealed that the largest vessels have a speed of 18 knots and a radius of action "sufficient for all requirements." They mount six torpedo tubes, one 4.1-in. gun and a machine-gun.

Germany has ready for sea two 26,000-ton battleships and the three pocket battleships of 10,000 tons, with a collective main armament of 36 11-in. guns, and two battleships of 35,000 tons, armed with 15 in. guns, are being built. Two 10,000-ton armoured cruisers with 8 in. guns are ready, and a third is completing, while four other cruisers of 7,000 to 10,000 tons, mounting 6 in. guns, are on the stocks.

The Year Book contains chapters on training, which suggest that the present fleet is no more than the nucleus of the future navy of Greater Germany, and that training in every branch is being carried on at high pressure.

BLEUCHER BACK TO FAVOUR

Charges Believed Groundless

HELSINKI (FINLAND)—According to reports from Moscow, M. Stalin is satisfied that charges brought by the deposed OGPU Chief (M. Yezhov) against Marshal Bleucher are groundless.

His reinstatement is expected. Bleucher, former commander of the Far Eastern Soviet Army, was deprived of his command following charges by Yezhov, after the clash with the Japanese at Posset Bay.

The Marshal has frequently been reported "purged" and dead recently.

The new chief of the OGPU (M. Beria), a close friend of Stalin, will dismiss 470 OGPU agents including Yezhov's closest associates.

Yezhov's diary reveals that 500 people were shot without trial in two years.

ing in every branch is being carried on at high pressure.

Complete Reorganisation
Of 22 Guerilla UnitsJapanese Western Drive To Kwangsi A Threat

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

CHUNGSHAN, Jan. 15.—To strengthen the guerilla forces in Kwangtung with a view to harassing the Japanese rear and cutting their communication lines, there will be a complete reorganisation of the 22 units and their commanders, who are to be replaced by seven district administrative officers. Gen. Li Hon-wan, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, is to be Commander-in-Chief of these units.

(The National Government, in a mandate, says "Central New" has appointed Gen. Li to be concurrent Peace Preservation Commander of Kwangtung Province).

WIDOW SUES
PAN AMERICAN
AIRWAYS

LOS ANGELES.—Mrs. Cleo L. Musick, widow of the commander of the Pan American Clipper, which was lost last January 11 near Pago Pago, has filed suit against Pan American Airways Company for $300,000 damages.

She charged that the company was careless, negligent and reckless in operating the flying boat and asserted she believes Capt. Edwin C. Musick was lost because "the Clipper was defectively designed and constructed."

Development Of Anglo-

Spain Key To Solution

ROME, JAN. 15 (REUTERS).—A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED before the visit of the British Ministers ended declared that frank exchanges of views between the statesmen have been marked by the greatest cordiality.

The statesmen decided to develop relations between Britain and Italy in the spirit of friendship and the Anglo-Italian Pact. The wish of the two countries to pursue a policy of effectively aiming for the maintenance of peace emerged more during the conversations.

HELIUM GOES UP IN TOY BALLOONS

One solution to the helium use problem, which has been bothering Government and lighter-than-air officials, has been discovered by a New York woman.

Miss Helen C. Waryn is selling 200,000 cubic feet a year of Uncle Sam's non-inflammable lifting gas much of which is going to waste on the Texas prairie, for use in toy and parade balloons.

The helium, as Miss Waryn sells it, is packaged in metal cylinders of 200 cubic feet each. Each cylinder holds enough gas for about 500 balloons and sells for around $26, plus a $10 deposit on the cylinder. This means that each balloon, when filled, contains about six cents' worth of gas.

Miss Waryn's best customer is a department store in New York City whose annual Thanksgiving parade is one mammoth helium-filled balloon after another.

The World's Fair with its balloon displays and its releases of thousands of balloons for advertising purposes also promises to send the balloon business skyrocketing.

CATHOLIC
PROPERTY
IN AUSTRIAInventory Will Be Taken

BERLIN, Jan. 15 (Reuters).—An inventory will be taken of Catholic property in Austria.

The news has been received with much apprehension in Catholic circles in Germany. It is recalled that measures against Jewish property originally began in precisely the same way.

Austria's churches and monasteries have large estates and extremely valuable artistic properties, though the number of monks have greatly been reduced.

Moreover, Austrian church interests were formerly closely bound with those of the State. Consequently, it does not to-day hold the same position of independence and self-sufficiency which exists in Prussia and is less able to defend itself.

ASSISTANCE FOR THE JEWSWhat America
Can Do

The following letters from correspondents appeared recently in the "Christian Science Monitor":

Why cannot nations who no longer desire the Jewish residue, give them time to find a new abode, let them take their hard-earned belongings and depart in peace?

In America we have thousands of acres of desert that could be cultivated into productive lands, as the Mojave Desert has and is proving. Many Jews have turned out to be good farmers.

A TEMPORARY MEASURE?

I do not think that the fact that we have 12,000,000 people unemployed is sufficient reason for not helping out the Jews and other oppressed peoples.

I believe we should widen the circle and let these poor people in, before it is too late. The schemes to form settlements for these people in different parts of the world are fine, but until these plans are complete, my plan is this:

1. Every town in the United States to take one family and care for them until they can find ways of making their own living. (Larger towns perhaps more than one family.)

2. This to be a temporary measure; that is, those that cannot adjust themselves at the end of a year to be moved to one of the settlements prepared for them. (I believe Lower California and an island off Australia, etc., have been suggested.)

ROADS CHOKED
BY TONS OF FROZEN TREACLE

Zeebrugge, the Belgian port and holiday resort, is wondering what to do about a glacier of golden treacle 6 ft. thick.

While the treacle remains frozen there is no danger. But when a thaw sets in thousands of tons of sticky liquid may cause a great deal of damage.

Recently the treacle, which had just been unloaded from the London steamer Athelmore, was freed by a burst in the walls of one of the storage tanks in which it was placed.

The first 4200 tons, all in one tank, rolled out and overturned a further 2200 tons in another tank, and 150 tons of creosote close by.

OVERTURNED WAGONS

The waves of treacle pushed down the railings round the tank area and rolled into the road outside, upsetting wagons filled with coke until it became frozen solid.

The Chief of Police stated that a complete crossroads outside the works was blocked by the treacle. "I have men guarding it, so that no children can have a free meal on the treacle and nobody can walk on it," he said.

"But I do not know what we can do when the treacle thaws. I do not see how we can stop it from moving on."

A false burglary alarm at Harringay Stadium, Green-lanes, Harringay, which caused police to search the stadium, was followed a few hours later by a false fire alarm from a call box near the stadium.

BURMA-YUNNAN ROAD A MONUMENT TO CHINESE
DETERMINATION

LONDON, Jan. 14 (Reuters).—In an editorial on the Burma-Yunnan road, "The Times" says it is a monument—and should prove a lasting one—to the resource and determination of the Chinese people.

Its significance is inescapable but it would be ridiculous to predict for it a dramatic future.

Referring to the application of the half million sterling export credit for the purchase of lorries for this road, "The Times" says that the Chinese may be excused if they find the ways of the West in this instance a little puzzling.

They should indeed be grateful for the funds which assist them to open a trade route which benefits both Powers through whose territory it runs, but it can hardly fail to strike them as odd that this assistance, which is on an inconsiderable scale, should have been withheld until the road for which they badly needed help had been completed by their unaided efforts.

Both Whitehall and Rangoon have been curiously slow to grasp the possibilities of the route which thanks to Chinese initiative may one day enable Britain to offset on the Irrawaddy, at least some part of her losses on the Yangtze and elsewhere.

INCENDIARISM IN JERUSALEM

JERUSALEM, Jan. 15 (Reuters).—The house of the British superintendent of the War Memorial Cemetery, which is the property of the Imperial War Graves Commission, was set on fire by incendiaries last night.

Various army units operating throughout the country for the past two days searched over 20 Arab villages and seized a quantity of firearms. A number of suspects has been detained.

RECREIO DRAW WITH KUMAON RIFLES

(BY J.H.F.)

In a friendly hockey match at King's Park yesterday Club de Recreio, fielding a depleted side, held a Battalion team of the Kumaon Rifles to a draw both sides sharing six goals. The game was fast and interesting and the final score was a fair indication of the run of play.

The home team quickly settled down and took the lead within the first ten minutes. The hopes of their supporters received a fillip when another was scored shortly after this.

Stung by these early reverses the Army side took the initiative and netted three times to take the lead in the first half.

After the change-over mid-field play ensued both sides having a fair share of the exchanges. Towards the closing stages of the game Recreio netted the equaliser.

LEGAL 'COMEDY OF ERRORS'

What was described as a "comedy of errors" was referred to recently, when the Court of Criminal Appeal quashed the conviction of James Samuel Joseph Lester: at London Sessions for receiving stolen goods.

Mr. Justice Humphreys, giving judgment, said that, although the indictment contained counts alleging larceny and receiving a bicycle, Lester was tried and put in charge of the jury on the count of larceny only. But the jury acquitted him of stealing and found him guilty of receiving.

Nobody seemed to have realised until then that Lester had not been put in charge of the jury on the receiving count, and the assistant chairman, Mr. A. W. Cockburn, K.C., admitted that he had not directed the jury as to the law about that matter. He refused, in the circumstances, to accept the verdict, and ordered a new trial.

That came on at the next Sessions, and Lester was charged with receiving. Counsel argued that Lester had already been convicted on this charge, and entered a plea of autrefois convict.

The chairman accepted that, but, taking the view that the previous conviction still stood, bound Lester over.

"It seems to have been a comedy of errors," said Mr. Justice Humphreys. "The law seems to have been consistently disregarded. There is no crime in the calendar which requires more careful direction as to the law than that of receiving."

Lord Hewart, Lord Chief Justice, and Mr. Justice Charles concurred.

Mass Killing In Wanhhsien:
School Building Bombed

CHUNGKING, JAN. 14 (Central).—One of the most callous mass killings of the Japanese air force occurred at noon to-day in Wanhhsien. Important upper Yangtze city in east Szechwan, when nine planes swooped down on the Kwangsi Primary School, destroyed the building and buried underneath at least two scores of young children.

The massacre occurred while the children were in the midst of their class. One of the bombs scored a direct hit, shattered the school structure, which caved in, trapping the students in a horrible shambles of charred and twisted woodwork and masonry.

Efforts were at once made by rescue parties and the frantic parents of the children to extricate the victims. Many rushed to hospitals for treatment have since died of their injuries.

In addition to the Kwangsi school, which was singled out as one of the objectives of the attack, the raiders also bombed buildings at Takiao, in the west suburbs, and along the First, Second and Third Avenues in the city.

CHUNGKING RAILWAYS MEET OBLIGATIONS

CHUNGKING, Jan. 14 (Central).—During the ten months between March and December 1938, the Chinese Government paid £258,706/11/8, 2,761,747.15 Belgian francs, 631,234.15 florins, 426,062.5 French and $884,000, Chinese currency, to various foreign creditors of Chinese national railway—a remarkable achievement for a country at war with 6,656 kilometres of its railways under Japanese occupation and only 3,200 kilometres of lines remaining in Chinese custody.

In accordance with the policy of the Chinese authorities to meet every railway debt obligation in accordance with the respective contracts until an entire line is completely under Japanese control, the Anglo-German Tientsin-Pukow loan was paid £51,234/0/4 last April and May, the line having fallen into Japanese hands during the latter months. The Lung-Hai loan was paid £35,978/8/2, 2,761,747.15 florins, 426,062.5 French francs, $1,795,678 Chinese dollars and an allowance of $8,000 last July. The Pien-Lo—the section of the Lunghai Railway between Kailong and Loyang—loan was paid 588,988.75 francs last July. The Canton-Hankow loan was paid £32,744/3/2 pounds last June, and the Ming-Hsiang loan was paid $36,000 last April and July.

For railway material loans, the Peking-Hankow material loan was paid £4,750 and $500,000 in the first five months of 1938. The Tientsin-Pukow material loan was paid $312,000 in the first four months of the year. However, the payment was discontinued since last May when the entire Tientsin-Pukow line was occupied by the Japanese. The Lung-Hai material loan was paid $10,000 in the first five months of last year. The Lung-Hai western section material loan was paid £84,000 in four instalments in the year 1928, that section of the line being entirely under Chinese control though one part suffered intermittent shelling from the Japanese across the Yellow River from Tungkwang.

SUGAR COUNCIL DECISIONS

No Change In Quotas

LONDON, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—It was decided at the meeting of the International Sugar Council which concluded yesterday that there will be no change in the existing quotas for the period ending August 31, 1939.

The Council came to the conclusion that the requirements of a free market, owing particularly to large shortage in crops in the United Kingdom and other countries, were likely to exceed 3,150,000 metric tons by a substantial amount.

The Council decided, however, that as there are still several uncertain factors, it could not now make a revised estimate of free market requirements, and therefore no change has been made in the existing quotas.

It was agreed that adjustments would have to be made in the quotas for the year ending August 31, 1940 in order to make them balance probable requirements, and it was resolved again to make the necessary adjustments in ample time before the beginning of the year concerned.

In regard to the statistical position for the year ended August 31, 1938, it was found that requirements of free market exceeded exports to that market by 77,000 metric tons.

MOTOR NOTES FROM GREAT BRITAIN

From a London Correspondent. The British motor industry consumes annually a million tons of steel, 11,000 miles of cloth, 5,500 tons of glass and 2,610,000 gallons of paint.

Two personalities well known in the motor industry, Sir George Beharrell, chairman of the Dunlop Co., and Mr. Peter Bennett, of Joseph Lucas Ltd., are members of the advisory panel formed to speed up rearmament.

New lighting for 153 miles of its streets has been decided upon by the London Borough of Lewisham. The General Electric Co. Ltd. of England, will provide over 6,000 new lighting units.

There were many frozen radiators and cracked cylinder blocks during the recent cold spell in Britain. The Ford Co. alone, in one day, dispatched over 100 cylinder heads to dealers in various parts of the country.

The new Rolls Royce "Peregrine" aero engine, although of similar capacity to the 600 h.p. "Kestrel," yields 860 h.p. and its weight is only 1,100 lb.

November saw all production records in the 35-year-old history of the Standard Co. broken. The Coventry factory actually doubled the output figure of the previous November.

A very strong team of riders will again represent the Ariel Co.

FIRM ATTITUDE TOWARDS JAPAN ADVOCATED

LONDON, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—General Sir Hubert Gough, in a letter to the "Financial News," declares that the position in China threatens with ruin all British trade in the Far East and vast interests in the Empire.

It is indeed time that the Government resolutely dealt with these dangers, he says.

The loss of the huge sum invested in China will materially reduce national income, seriously increase the unemployment problem and make the taxation burden still heavier.

"Greatly as we deplore strong measures, there is no limit beyond which the Government cannot go, having regard to our interests and security," he states.

"Diplomatic notes of protest produce no effect on the Japanese and it is necessary that our Government adopt a more resolute attitude."

"Beyond the loss of trade lies the prospect of the loss of all our possessions in Asia and the Pacific, including India, and the security of Australia is threatened, but all the cards are not in the hands of the anti-Comintern Pact."

BRITISH TRADE DECLINE

LONDON, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—British overseas trade in 1938 showed an all round reduction compared with the previous year.

According to the Board of Trade, imports of merchandise for the year totalled £920,050,000 compared with £1,028,000,000 in 1937, while exports of United Kingdom goods amounted to £471,000,000 compared with £521,000,000.

It is noteworthy that the decline in imports is twice as large as the reduction in exports, thus effecting a substantial reduction in the country's adverse trade balance.

In the forthcoming motor cycle reliability season. One of the team, Len Heath, began the season well by winning the Scott Trial.

At the luncheon given to Major A.T. Gardner to celebrate his 188 m.p.h. with the 1,100 c.c. M.G., a replica of the car in ice formed the centre piece of the table.

British trolley buses of A.E.C.-English Electric manufacture are to operate at Odense, the first provincial town in Denmark to employ this form of transport. It is the birthplace of Hans Andersen.

The old established coachbuilding firm of Barkers has been taken over by Hoopers, in conjunction with Mr. Alan P. Good, of Lagondas. Hoopers received their first Royal Warrant from Queen Adelaide, in 1830.

The challenge cup for the best solo performance in the British Expert's Motor Cycle Trial was won by Allan Jefferies, riding a Triumph 500 c.c. model.

SHARE MARKET REVIEW

BY C. A. L. RICKETT
Secretary, Hongkong
Sharebrokers' Association

Throughout the entire week the market has been dull and featureless. Practically all listed stocks have been obtainable at quoted prices. Prices, however, have been inclined to ease although holders of shares have displayed no undue anxiety to sell. Trading has been of a very desultory nature and the volume of business recorded for the week has been almost negligible. The undertone at the close of business is rather easier.

H.K. Bank shares, following the London price, changed hands down to $1400 (cum div.). Business was reported in Unions at $475. Lands could be obtained at $37. H.K. Docks (O) after changing hands at $181 receded to $181. Watsons were offering at $8.05 with sales reported at this figure. Hotels were offering at $7. Trams remained steady at $17.60.

H.K. Banks have announced a final dividend of £3, making a total of £5.10 for the year 1938.

The Manila market, effected by outside influences, has been irregular, resulting in a small but general recession in prices. Demonstrations have, perhaps, been the heaviest losses, dropping back from 23 1/2 to 23 1/4 cts. San Maurice receded 12 cts to Ps. 1.76. United Paracale closed at 66 cts a loss of 5 cts. Atoks, on the other hand, improved from 39 to 35 cts. Market closed quiet.

With reference to gold mining stocks it is interesting to note that by 15 gold mining firms Ps. 21,965,554 was paid out in dividends during the year 1938.

WORLD WHEAT PARLEY

LONDON, Jan. 15 (Reuter).—The recommendation to convene an international conference for the purpose of framing an effective wheat control scheme is the principle recommendation of the report adopted at the final session of the meeting of the International Wheat Committee.

CUSTOMS DEBT SERVICE

Tokyo Agreement Not In Force

The announcement, conveyed in a telegram from the Inspector-General of Customs to the Chinese Ambassador in London, that Chinese Customs revenue for 1938 amounted to $254,570,000 is, on the face of it, satisfactory, for it confirms the impression that Chinese trade has resisted the effects of war with considerable success, says "The Times."

The figure compares with $342,899,739 for 1937 and $324,633,291 for 1936. So far as bondholders are concerned, however, satisfaction will be considerably modified by Sir Frederick Maze's statement that no quota towards payment of the loan and indemnity service has been received from any of the regions under Japanese control with the exception of a single remittance from the Shanghai Customs in June.

Though the service of all debts secured on the Customs was paid in full there was, it now appears, a deficiency on the debt service, which the Chinese Government made good out of its strained resources.

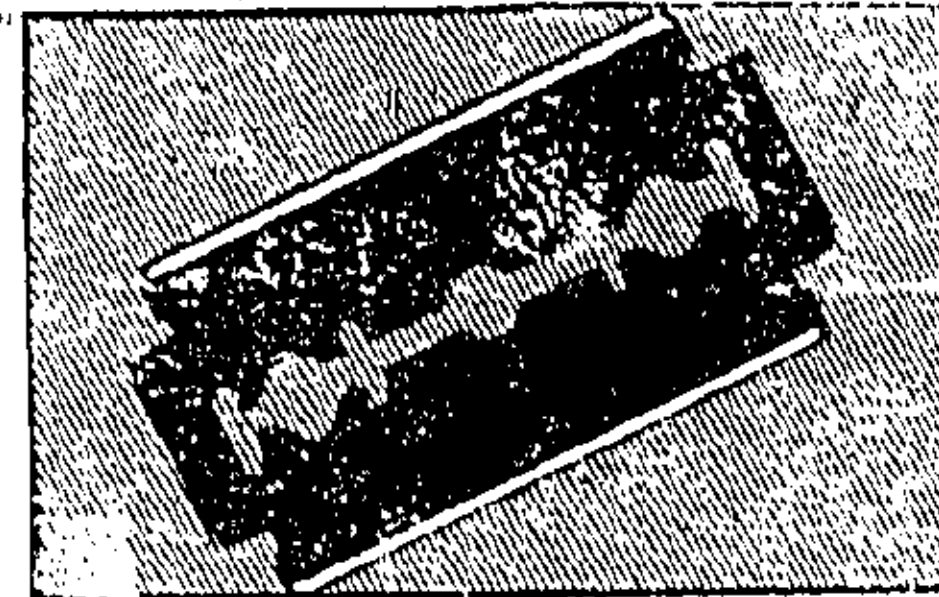

WHAT HAS BECOME OF AGREEMENT?

What, it may be asked, has become of the provisional agreement negotiated as recently as last May between the British Ambassador in Tokyo, representing the International bondholders, and the Japanese authorities, whereby the latter undertook to remit regularly to the Inspector-General the quotas due from the ports under their control?

The answer, it now transpires is that the agreement never actually came into force. Disposing as it did of funds nominally belonging to China, it could not enter into force without the concurrence of the Chinese Government, and that concurrence has never been given. In consequence, the agreement remains a dead letter.

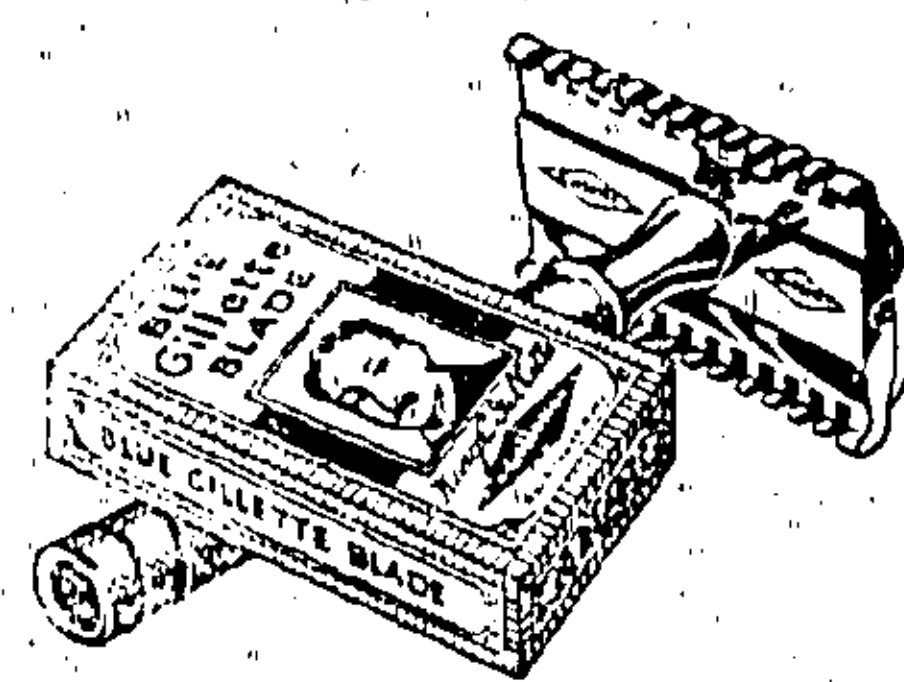

The Chinese Government, however, with a proper regard for its credit, has so far found means to defray the loan service pending the time when the funds now presumed to be accumulating in the Yokohama Specie Bank can be made available for this purpose.

Gillette reduces your shaving costs

Insist on Gillette... don't be persuaded to buy inferior blades on the grounds that they are cheaper. They may be lower in price, but they are not economical in use.

P.I. RANKS HIGH IN PRODUCTION OF GOLD

The Philippines now must be ranked well up among the world's first ten major gold producing areas, states the "New York Herald-Tribune."

The "Tribune" points out that the Philippines' 1938 gold production, on the basis of the output for the first ten months, approximated 200,000 ounces of gold valued at U.S.$31,500,000, making a new high with an increase of 26 per cent. above last year.

The newspaper observes that this rate of increase was not approached by any other important gold-producing country during the past year. It says the output of the Philippines is now about 25 per cent of that of the entire continental United States, including Alaska.

SATURDAY'S SENIOR FRIENDLIES

I.R.C. Beat Craigengower

Set 156 runs to get in 90 minutes, the Indians did well to just manage it in the last over of the match, thus beating their rivals, Craigengower, for the second time this season. E. Nazaria batted well for his 34, his cutting in particular being audacious, while Mr. el Arculli hit out gallantly at the end, contributing largely to the win.

Club were given a surprise by the Navy against Civil Service, taking nine wickets for 19 runs in 12 overs, four of which were maidens, and dismissing the side for 44. The winners had largely to thank Lt.-Col. Kennedy for their own score of 101. Kennedy had 58 not out, and Capt. Whitmarsh (18) was the only other naval double-figure scorer.

REICHSTAG TO BE REBUILT

BERLIN, Jan. 15 (Reuter)—The old Reichstag building gutted by fire in 1933 will be rebuilt, according to an announcement in the press.

The great hall, with its blackened walls, will be considerably enlarged and will include two new deputies, representing Austria and the Sudeten Sudeten regions.

A second hall, with its reception rooms for Hitler, will be added. The great square, Koenigsplatz, in front of the building, will be widened for a vast assembly ground for mass demonstrations.
